

ATNAD presents

QiCare

is very easy to operate, turns pages of all common magazines and provides true reading pleasure.

QiCare is an automatic page-turning device turning pages of all magazines and papers, controlled at your command.

QiCare can easily be operated using various escapements such as voice-control, proximity sensor and foot- or finger-switch according to individual requirements. QiCare turns pages at your command both forwards and backwards.

The well designed advanced aid was developed together with reference customers, ergotherapists and physicians in order to meet our customers' individual needs.

Our consultants will be glad to offer personal assistance:
